

Citizen energy for successful energy transition

Reframing the narrative, reforming the system

Hosted by

MEP Romana Jerković, with support of REGEA - North-West Croatia Regional Energy and Climate Agency, and
FEDARENE - European Federation of Agencies and Regions for Energy and Environment

European Parliament - Room: SPINELLI 3G2

May 4th 2023

Program of the event

Time	Topic	Speaker
13:00 – 13:30	Gathering and registration of participants
13:30 – 13:45	Welcome address	Romana Jerković , MEP Dr Julije Domac , Managing Director, REGEA
13:45 – 13:55	Impact of the reform of the electricity market design on energy communities	Adela Tesarova , DG Energy, European Commission, Head of Unit, Just Transition, Consumers, Energy Efficiency and Innovation
13:55 – 14:15	Insights from the Energy Communities Repository How to transfer best practices and knowledge - SHAREs Project	Élodie Bossio , Project Manager, FEDARENE Dr Angela Holzmann , SHAREs Project, Senior Expert, AEA
14:15 – 15:25	Panel discussion: Energy communities- status quo and way forward What are key issues in transposition of directive provisions on energy communities into national legislation? How can electricity market reform support development of citizen energy on EU and national level? Is there a way to streamline procedures for CEC and REC development and set up? How can regulators, competent authorities and energy agencies help?	Romana Jerković , MEP Adela Tesarova , DG Energy, European Commission, Head of Unit, Just Transition, Consumers, Energy Efficiency and Innovation Dr Slavica Robić , Assistant Managing Director, REGEA, Croatia Elise Steyaert , Cabinet of Flemish Deputy Prime Minister Bart Somers, Belgium Noémie Poize , Project Manager, Centrales Villageoises, France Michael Sorger , Senior Expert, E-Control, Austria
15:25 – 15:30	Conclusions and closing of the conference	